Free Screening Eye Exams in May for Certified Service Animals

A philanthropic effort provided to the public by the board certified diplomates of the American College of Veterinary Ophthalmologists.

The American College of Veterinary Ophthalmologists® (ACVO®) will host its 10th public service event providing free screening eye exams to certified service animals.

In May 2017, Eye Care for Animals' board-certified veterinary ophthalmologists will donate their services to provide complimentary screening eye examinations to service animals across America.

To check eligibility and register online beginning April 1st, go to ACVOeyeexam.org. Registration ends April 30th.

Schedule an appointment in any of our facilities nationwide. Visit EyeCareforAnimals.com for location information.
